BUCKINGHAM

Economics and International Studies: You Said, We Did.

You said there is a lack of extra events aside from parties

We have introduced a termly Careers event, attracting partnerships with KPMP and Santander

You said marking criteria are sometimes inconsistent and not clarified well enough unless you ask lecturers repeatedly

We have encouraged all lecturers to explain in class how a particular question should be approached and the marking criteria used

You said there should be more staff-student interaction, especially during the revision classes prior to exams

We have made revision classes more frequent in the run-up to exams. Lecturers are available to mark past paper questions and give feedback
