

Medicine: You Said, We Did.

You said anatomy models should be used more during lectures, group work, and revision sessions

We have increased their use during these sessions

You said revision sessions should be more flexible

We have changed the style of revision sessions to reflect your feedback

You said you would like more information on student electives

We provided further information on electives

Get in touch with suggestions for your course qualityassurance@buckingham.ac.uk