Welcome to the University of Buckingham's School of Education Newsletter

We won't be filling your inbox, but just twice each year we would like to let you know about all that we have been working on, whether it's a new course, being featured in the media or an addition to our team. Not interested? Don't worry, we won't be offended, just hit this unsubscribe link and we will remove you from the list.

Application season is here!

It's that time of year again, when the School of Education's Admissions Team work round the clock to process applications, organise interviews and answer enquiries.

Click here to take a look at all that we now offer and if there is anything at all that we can help with, please do get in touch so that we can start the process for you, or a colleague, well before the July application deadlines.

Professor Anthony O'Hear at Buckingham Palace to receive OBE

Awarded for services to education, our very own Professor O'Hear, received his OBE from Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II at Buckingham Palace earlier this month. Vice-Chancellor Sir Anthony Seldon said: "The honour is thoroughly-deserved. His contribution to education has been enormous and many of the students he has taught have spoken warmly about their learning. He is a huge asset to the University and to the country."

Introducing Bethany, Head of Secondary

Dr Bethany Kelly began her teaching career over 20 years ago teaching Ancient Church History to somewhat reluctant sixth formers. Alongside teaching responsibilities Bethany has been a philosophy examiner, represented Education on the City of London Drugs Committee and also had a stint as Chair of the Independent Schools Religious Studies Association, organising national conferences at Chelsea Football Club.

After 10 successful years of middle management, Bethany moved into senior leadership with two deputy headships and responsibilities that included mentoring PGCE trainees and NQTs, staff development and establishing leadership groups.

Bethany completed a MA in Education and has an Educational Doctorate in which she looked at Leadership, Identity and Gender. Whilst working on her Doctorate, Bethany joined Buckingham as a tutor, looking after large groups of trainee teachers all over the UK.

New for 2018/19

It has been a busy year for course development here at Buckingham, but we are now pleased to share all that we have been working on....
