THE UNIVERSITY OF BUCKINGHAM
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

From the Dean of Education, Barnaby Lenon

We are pleased to announce the appointment of the following staff:

Bethany Kelly has been promoted to be Director of Programmes with particular responsibility for all Masters courses.

Hannah Wilson has been appointed to be in charge of the Secondary PGCE. She is an experienced and well-known state school head teacher.

Amanda Parker-Jones to assist with course development including the establishment of online courses.

Stephen Cook, an experienced teacher and teacher-trainer, to manage SCITTs, tutors and overseas projects.

Professor James Tooley has also joined us from Newcastle University. He is a world-leading authority on low-cost schools in very poor parts of Africa and will be working with the School of Education.

Application season is here!

It's that time of year again, when the School of Education's Admissions Team work round the clock to process applications, organise interviews and answer enquiries.

Click here to take a look at what your next step could be, and if there is anything at all that we can help with, please do get in touch so that we can start the process for you before the application deadlines. We are delighted to announce the launch of a new MA in Residential Education, offered in conjunction with the Boarding Schools' Association and open to those with experience or an interest in boarding.
